Foster Carers	Pay and Hours
Vacancy Details Helping a young person through a difficult time can be an emotionally and financially rewarding experience. If you have the interests of young people at heart, this could be an opportunity too good to miss. You could work with new born-babies to sixteen year olds, whatever your preference.  There are plenty of options available from short respite care, starting at an overnight stay, to longer term work that can last for years. You will also have the chance to be involved with the birth family, as in most cases the young person returns home. You will need a spare bedroom, or enough space for another bed, coupled with a desire to help young people and we will help you with the rest. You really could come from any background, be any age, religion, ethnicity or marital status, gay or straight, be a home owner or renting - it really doesn't matter, as long as you can offer a supportive and nurturing environment.  Our comprehensive training program and ongoing support are second to none. Take the first steps and call us on Freephone 0800 5 19 18 18 or apply online www.southampton.gov.uk/fostering
